INDIAN FALLS

The falls that men made

Indian Falls is the most remote waterfall on the Grey County tour. The falls is on the fall river, which flows through the upland of the Indian River and makes a surprising appearance on the side of the gorge. It is really beautiful, the water is a deep green and the water is really cold. The falls is a great place to get out of the gorge and enjoy the view.

JONES FALLS

Don’t leave town without seeing it

As you step up the hill in the forest, Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores, you will see the village of Jones Falls. The falls is at the top of a hill, it is very scenic and you can see the river flowing down below.

The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores. The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores.

INGLIS FALLS

Centre Piece of the Waterfall tour

Inglis Falls is the largest and most scenic waterfall on the Grey County tour. The falls is at the top of a hill, it is very scenic and you can see the river flowing down below.

The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores. The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores.

WALTER’S FALLS

A village as well as a waterfall

Walter’s Falls is a small village located on the north shore of Lake Huron. The village is about 30 minutes from Owen Sound and is a great spot for a day trip. The village is very picturesque and has a number of interesting things to see.

The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores. The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores.

EUGENIA FALLS

Sparkling Waters

Eugenia Falls is a spectacular waterfall located on the north shore of Lake Huron. The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores. The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores.

HOGGS FALLS

Grey County’s Best Kept Secret

Hoggs Falls is a spectacular waterfall located on the north shore of Lake Huron. The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores. The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores.

MCGOWAN FALLS

The unexpected falls

McGowan Falls is a spectacular waterfall located on the north shore of Lake Huron. The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores. The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores.

WEAVERS CREEK FALLS

Two Topes of Waterfalls in one

Weavers Creek Falls is a spectacular waterfall located on the north shore of Lake Huron. The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores. The falls is a great spot to take a photo, you can see the river flowing down and you can see the village of Owen Sound standing west of Saugeen Shores.
When visiting the waterfalls, please remember to follow the signs along the trail or roadway and do not venture off marked paths.

• Be alert to dangers along the trails such as poisonous plants, wildlife, and cliff edges.

• Follow the signs along trails and roadways and do not venture off marked paths.

• Be aware of your surroundings and maintain a safe distance from the falls.

• Wear appropriate footwear as most of the falls require walking on uneven terrain.

• We recommend visiting in spring for increased water flow.

• Most of the waterfalls have interpretive signage on site and directional signage on the roadways to assist and complete your experience.

• The full duration of the waterfalls tour is 220kms (swimming/climbing are not permitted)

TOURING NOTES:
• The full duration of the waterfalls tour is 220kms.
• Some parking lots may not be plowed, especially in winter.
• Winter activities include camping, canoeing, hiking and fishing. Also worth checking out is the nearby red rock formations.
• Enjoy spectacular views.

WINTER WATERFALLS
Grey County's waterfalls are every bit as beautiful in the winter. Pull on your snowshoes and trek to a waterfall hiking tour today.

When visiting waterfalls in winter, remember to:
• Be alert to dangers along the trails such as ice, falling snow, and red rock formations.
• Follow the signs along trails and roadways and do not venture off marked paths.
• Children under 5 are free.
• Summer admission is $8 for adults, $6 for seniors, $4 for children 5-12.
• Motor-coach friendly.
• Children under 3 are free.
• Step Class: Level of Difficulty: Moderate